

ELIOT INSTITUTE BOARD MANUAL
COVENANT OF RIGHT RELATIONSHIP
FOR
ELIOT INSTITUTE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND STAFF
[Approved January 2001]

As members or staff of the Eliot Institute Board of Directors, we covenant to affirm and support the inherent worth and dignity of each board member, staff member, and of each camper. To do this we will address each other with respect, entertaining opinions and viewpoints different from our own with patience and good will. We will receive suggestions with belief in their positive intent and, in turn, make suggestions we believe are for the good of the camps, and not merely for our own gain.

In communicating with other board members and staff, whether in person, in writing or via electronic mail, we will adhere to our guidelines for positive interaction and affirmation of each person. We will remember that our purpose as board members and staff is to maintain and improve the heritage of Eliot Institute so it may continue to offer fun, safe and rewarding family camps for present and future generations.
